Victims Identify Three Men Held as Highway Robbers. Nabbed in Union Avenue Apartment With Women.

An uncontrolable fondness for slik alamas, diamond studs, English weeds and fastidious hats resulted fonday in the arrest here of three ouths who have been identified as ighwaymen and who are charged ith three holdups committed last reek.

The men are Edward Kelly, 24, Destroit; Frank Shaw, slias Frank Smith, 24, and Red Horton, 19, believed to be from Detroit. Kelly also may be held on a white slave charge. Edna Padget and Irene Shaw, both about 20, are held with the men.

All were arrested Sunday night in a handsomely furnished apartment at 928½ Union avenue, in a raid by Lieut. Hoyle and Detective Sergeants Peters, Kennedy, Carter and York.

Search through the apariment disclosed a wardrobe worth thousands of dollars. Police found a closet full of expensive tailor-made clothes, almost a score of natty silk-lined hats, piles of new silk shirts, and several suits of pajamas.

Police suspicion first was attracted to the trio of youths by their wardrobe. The suspicion grew, and within a few hours the detective bureau had sufficient evidence to arrest.

The men are charged with the following holdups:

C. O. Maining Drug company. Chelsea avenue and Thomas street. They entered the store while a customer was paying Manning abill and took $35 from Manning and a small sum of money from the other man. Manning it is identified the men.

Drove to Carr avenue and LeMaster street at night, stopping L. A. Hunton, representative of the Ingersell Watch company, taking watches valued at $200, and $60 in cash.

Held up the Hambieton Drug company, Madison avenue near Pauline street, striking Sol Hambleton on the head with a revolver but when he resisted them. They took $360 Hambieton identified the men as those who assaulted him.

Reports from other sections of the state, especially from the Eastern division, indicate that a big vote will be cast. East Tennessee reports that practically every man and woman of voting age has been registered and barring some obstacle in the way of heavy rains or other such catastrophe, will cast his or her vote on Tuesday. And this vote, will be almost solid for the Republican ticket A report from Sevier county states that whereas that county usually registers about 2,100 to 2,300 votes. this year the registration has run up to about 8,000, and, the report adds, there are not more than half a doz-en Democrats in the entire county.

Based on such reports as this, Democratic leaders in West Tennes-see are urging the Democratic voters to get out to the polls and do their part toward stemming this great Republican tide, which will roll down from the Eastern mountains. Indications are that Middle Tennese will vote along the usual lines for the Democratic nominee president and vice-president, nominees about the same proportion of desertions in the governor's race.

Weather will naturally play an im portant part. It is probable that the eastern part of the state will get the rainy conditions on Tuesday which the western section experi-enced Monday, and Middle Tennessee will probably suffer, too, though perhaps to a somewhat lesser deWHICH OF THESE DO THE WOMEN OF THE NATION WANT AS "FIRST LADY OF THE LAND"?
